37.

THE LIGHT OF THY DARK EYES

BALLAD

WRITTEN BY

Henry F. Watson Esq.

AND RESPECTFULLY INSCRIBED TO

MISS GEORGIANNA WALKER

ADAPTED TO THE FAVORITE AIR

OH TEACH ME HOW FROM LOVE TO FLY.

Pagan

25 Cts. nett.

St. LOUIS Published by BALMER & WEBER.
New York FIRTH, POND & C°

Entered according to Act of Congress A.D. 1848 by Balmer & Weber in the Clerks Office of the District Court of Missouri.

38.

THE LIGHT OF THY DARK EYES.

Written by Henry F. Watson. Adapted to a Favorite Air.

2d Verse. That light I fain would have to beam For--e'er u--pon my 1st Verse. Let o---thers gaze the stars a---mong That gild the up---per

p

way E'en dark--ness bright--est light should seem, And skies, A sweet---er theme shall be my song — The

mf p night it---self be day. And night it---self be light of thy dark eyes. The light of thy dark day And night it--self be day. E'en eyes The light of thy dark eyes. A darkness brightest light should seem..... And night it-self be day.

4

sweeter theme shall be my song..... The light of thy dark eyes.

4th Verse. And still a sof---ter, sweet---er light, A light that more I

3d Verse. Then might the Sun his rays de--ny, The moon her pa---ler prize, Should cheer my way and make it bright— The light, And all the orbs in yon---der sky, With-

light of thy dark eyes. The light of thy dark draw their beams at night. With-draw their beams at eyes. The light of thy dark eyes. Should night. With-draw their beams at night. And cheer my way and make it bright The light of thy dark eyes.

all the orbs in yon-der sky With-draw their beams at night.

G. W. Quidor Engv.